

WILSON'S CORNISH TRIP BRINGS MEMORIES OF PRE-ELECTION DAYS

Rides in Car That Carried Him
Around Country and Accompanied by Campaign Aides.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 12.—President Wilson passed through here at 9 A. M. to-day en route to the summer White House at Cornish, N. H. The trip was reminiscent of campaign days, for not only did the President ride on the private car Federal, from which he made most of his back platform speeches, but he was accompanied by Secretary McAdoo of the Treasury, Department Secretary Tumulty and Dudley Field Malone, Third Assistant Secretary of State, all of whom were Mr. Wilson's travelling companions in pre-election days.

McAdoo, Tumulty and Malone left the President's train at New Haven and continued to Beverly, Mass., where they will confer to-day with Col. M. H. House, intimate friend of President Wilson. They will talk over the Boston Collectorship and two other Federal appointments in Massachusetts. The slate that has been under consideration consists of Edmund Billings to be Collector of the Port and Joseph Maynard to be Surveyor at Boston, and former State Senator John F. Malley to be Collector of Internal Revenue at Springfield, Mass.

Vigorous protests have been lodged against the appointment of Billings by the organization Democrats, and to-day's conference of those who know the Massachusetts political situation is intended to gather information to lay before the President on his return to Washington next week.

MOTHER, ILL. SEEKS SON.

Appeals for Aid After Police Fall for Five Months to Find Him.

After searching every hospital and prison in the city and urging the police into action for a little over five months, Mrs. Edward Francfort, of No. 35 West Sixty-seventh street, has asked The Evening World to assist her in locating her son Edward, who disappeared from home in April last, and has not been seen or heard from since.

Pete has certainly played havoc with Mrs. Francfort, who is sixty-seven years old, since her son dropped from sight. Their little home in Harlem has been swallowed up by creditors and she has been in a great part of the time. She is now being cared for by the Swiss Society and living at the Swiss Home, 8 Via on the verge of collapse and cannot stand the strain much longer.

When he left home Edward Francfort wore a dark suit, a wigged collar and dark tie, a derby hat and black shoes and socks. He was a waiter in the Equitable Building until the big fire there. He is thirty-eight years old and weighs about 160 pounds.
